Now could be a great time to think about. . .

How are things going and where are you headed?

You may have some goals for right now and some ideas for the future. That's where having a "life plan" comes in. A life plan can help you achieve your goals and plan for the future. Thinking ahead may help you stay safe and healthy. It will help you make healthy decisions regarding physical activity, healthy eating, sleep, relationships, sexual health and other areas of your life.

Use this booklet to think about your goals and ultimately, your own life plan. The information and facts in this booklet can help you to stay true to yourself and take the best care possible of your health, and yourself.

Add today's date and signature below. At the end of each page there is a section for goal setting. Goal setting helps you focus on what you want to achieve. Enter your goals into myblueprint.ca. Put your plan into action and take time to review it regularly as things in your life may change or you may see them differently at a later date. Make changes and revisions to your plan as needed.

Goal Setting

Go to myblueprint.ca and create a goal for your health in the goal setting box.

Example: I will increase my fruit and vegetable intake by ensuring my lunch contains at least one fruit and one vegetable serving every day this semester.

My Life—My Mental Health

What helps me relax and feel good - music, time with friends/family, a good movie?

What can I do each day to support my mental health - get enough sleep, smile, breathing exercises, positive thinking, positive relationships?

How many hours of sleep do I get most nights? _____

Sleep helps to fuel the brain and the body. Teens need more sleep because their bodies and minds are growing quickly. Scientific research shows that many teens do not get enough sleep. To be at their best, teens need between 9 and 10 hours of sleep every day.

When will I know that I'm ready to be sexually active? What does this mean to me?

If I was feeling pressured to be sexually active what could I do?

What are my limits right now? How can I talk about them with my partner?

8 in 10 young women and 6 in 10 young men say they wish they had waited until they were older to have sex.

It is perfectly okay not to have sex. You have choices. You are entitled to say "no" now, even if you said "yes" before.

My Life - My Reproductive Health

Do I want to be a parent someday? Why? _____

How many children would I like to have and when? _____

How would being a teen parent affect my other goals?

What is my plan to prevent an unplanned pregnancy? If I choose to be sexually active, what kind of protection from Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs) and unplanned pregnancy will I choose? _____

- www.sexandu.ca
- Hastings Prince Edward Public Health: 613-966-5500
- The Red Card

STIs are spread from person to person by having sex or intimate contact. They are common among teens. STIs are a serious health problem. Some STIs can cause permanent damage such as infertility, and even death (in the case of HIV/AIDS). Some STIs don't have symptoms.

The only 100% effective way to not get pregnant or get your partner pregnant and avoid a STI is to not have sex.

▶▶▶ FACT

Who will I talk to (e.g., doctor, nurse, counsellor, parent) if I have questions about my sexual health?

All women who could become pregnant need a multi-vitamin with folic acid every day. This can lower the chances of having a baby with serious birth defects (e.g., spina bifida).

Goal Setting

Go to myblueprint.ca and create a goal for your reproductive health in the goal setting box. Example: I will make one visit to the sexual health clinic to find out what services they offer and ask any questions I have by the end of the month.

The realities of a teen pregnancy

Many relationships end during pregnancy or after the baby is born.

Many young parents and children live in poverty.

Babies are expensive. Costs can add up to over $10,000 in the first year alone.

Drinking any amount of alcohol during pregnancy, even before a pregnancy test is positive, can have serious effects on a fetus, such as brain damage and physical anomalies. Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) is preventable by avoiding alcohol.

Thoughts of a teen parent:

Becoming a parent would force me to grow up quickly.

My Life - My Family Health History

Your family history can affect your future health. Find out if any health concerns exist in your family and who has them. For example, it is important to be aware of diabetes, asthma, heart disease, mental illness, and babies born prematurely or with birth defects. These health concerns could affect you and any children you might have some day.

Goal Setting

Ask a parent, guardian, or relative if they have any knowledge of health concerns that run in your family. Add what you find out about your family health history to your portfolio section in myblueprint.ca

Add a reflection on what this means for your health, your future and your plans. Then, create one goal based on what you learned.

Example:

My portfolio: My father had a heart attack and my mother has high blood pressure. My grandmother had lung cancer and passed away and my grandfather had a stroke last year.

Reflection: My mother, father, grandfather and grandmother have had illnesses that can be caused by smoking. Smoking would increase my risk, so I should stay smoke free.

Goal: To help me stay smoke free I will practice saying no to smoking with a trusted adult or friend by the end of the month.

Based on the 6 topics:

- My health
- My mental health
- My relationships
- My reproductive health
- My family health history
- My future

I plan to:

This plan will help me:

Go to myblueprint.ca and upload your copy of My Life, My Plan to your portfolio. Take time to review your plan regularly as things in your life may change or you may see them differently at a later date.

I will make a promise to myself to stay healthy. This will make me feel good about myself. It will help me keep the options for my future open. It will also help me have the best chance of having a healthy family, if I choose, when the time is right.
